WAS ASSAILANT OF MRS. ADA DENNIS.

CASE PROMISES TO BE VERY SENSATIONAL.

DETECTIVES HARD AT WORK

Victim Partly Regained Consciousness Today—The Officers Now Hunting For a Note Book.

Washington, Dec. 11.—A day has elapsed since Mrs. Ada Gilbert Dennis the fashionable modiste, was found in a dying condition in her room at 117 K street. The police announced this noon that the case promises to be highly sensational.

The hospital authorities report the woman's condition as unchanged and hold out little hope for her recovery. Besides her bed sits a detective who listens intently to every sound from the unconscious woman.

The idea of robbery finds no adherents. The fact that nothing is missing and that jewels and money in an open box or a nearby table were left untouched eliminates this theory. If robbery had been the motive and the assailant had been scared away, he would have undoubtedly stopped a moment to take the money and jewels.

The police merely express the belief that the assailant was acquainted with Mrs. Dennis and was familiar with the lay of the room. The light, which usually had burned dim in her room was out when her moans and cries for help brought assistance. The doors were both locked from the inside and the assailant had escaped from the front window, which is about nine feet above the sidewalk.

A high government official is figuring prominently in the case owing to numerous visits he paid Mrs. Dennis. Suddenly, so the police are informed, he stopped visiting her and until a satisfactory reason for the discontinuance of his visits is found, he will unconsciously remain in the police dragnet.

The hand print in the dust on the piano has not been discarded as a clue by the police. The print is very faint and undoubtedly that of a woman.

Shortly before noon today Mrs. Dennis partially regained consciousness. She says a woman did the deed. That she will tell her name later. She has not the strength to talk and indicated that further information would be found in a notebook. The police are searching for the notebook now.

Chief of police Sylvester says the case is rapidly clearing up and promises to be the most sensational in the criminal annals of Washington.

IN BURGLAR'S CLOTHES.

Delaware, O., Dec. 11.—Not often does a college president appear in public in burglar's clothes, but such was the case Monday with Dr. J. W. Bashford, president of Ohio Wesleyan university. Sunday night burglars entered his residence, stole four overcoats and the doctor's pantaloons, leaving a good suit instead. When the doctor arose he put on the garments left by the burglar and reported the affair to the police, afterwards appearing at his college in the burglar's duds.

Catholic Gathering.

Cincinnati, Dec. 11.—All who attended the session of the American Federation of Catholic societies today were obliged to show credentials as delegates. Those who did not have them were turned away. A message to the Pope was ordered Tuesday, expressing loyalty of the organization as Catholics and another to President Roosevelt expressing patriotism of their sentiments.

If the United States were as densely peopled as San Salvador, the smallest of American states, the population would be 350,000,000.

BY THE CORPSE

Of a Negro Killed in a Fight a Tramp Slept All Night in a Barn.

Akron, O., Dec. 11.—A negro found dead in a barn at Portage is believed to have died from a wound received in a fight with the town marshal of Barberton. A tramp who slept in the barn discovered the body when he awoke, having been lying beside it all night.

Indiana Oil Field.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 11.—The Standard Oil company, which has large holdings in Grant, Jay and Adams counties, with headquarters at Geneva, will dispose of its property December 18 to a New York syndicate. The consideration is $300,000. This is one of the largest transactions ever made in the Indiana oil field.

BANK BURGLARS

WORK IN VAIN AT TWO OHIO TOWNS TODAY.

First National at Felicity and Farmers' Bank at Shreve, Ohio, Visited This Time.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 11.—A telephone message from Felicity, Ohio, says four men made a desperate attempt to burglarize the First National bank at that place early today. The safe was cracked and the building damaged, but the burglars were frightened away before they secured any booty.

Shreve, O., Dec. 11.—Burglars blew open the Farmers' bank here last night, but the explosion awakened the citizens who chased the marauders away before they got anything.

Telephone Deal.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—It is today reported from a reliable source that the Bell Telephone company has absorbed its strongest rival, the Erie Telephone company, whose holding amount to $24,000,000, and that it also controls the Cleveland telephone system. Erie telephone was hammered down to 15 last week. A year ago it sold for 120.

'I'LL BE DEAD

IN THREE MINUTES SAID MYERS AND HE WAS.

Sat Down in Barber's Chair to Be Shaved—Married a Month Ago—Domestic Trouble.

Huntington, W. Va., Dec. 11.—Edward Myers, aged 35, a contractor, committed suicide this morning while sitting in a barber's chair. He pulled a revolver from his pocket just as the barber finished shaving him and remarked: "I'll be dead in three minutes." An explosion followed and the bullet penetrated his heart. Myers came here a year ago from Warren county, Pa. He was married a month ago. It is claimed that domestic troubles caused him to take his life.

Prince's Health Fails.

London, Dec. 11.—The health of Germany's Crown Prince has totally collapsed as a result of his arduous military training and severe course of studies. This necessitates his absence on an extended cruise in the Mediterranean on board the German Imperial Yacht Hohenzollern. Emperor William is responsible for the rigorous training of his son.

Cleveland's Government.

Cleveland, Dec. 11.—Quo warranto proceedings to oust the present city government has been brought by C. D. Gibbons, a Cleveland lawyer, on the ground that the law permitting their election was special legislation. The case is now before the Supreme court. Should Gibbons win, Governor Nash could appoint a municipal administration for Cleveland.

The death rate among negroes in our large cities is nearly double that of the whites.

CHANGE

OF INAUGURATION DATE IS PROPOSED

IN A JOINT RESOLUTION BY SENATOR BURROWS.

THE NEW TREATY IS ANALYZED

Philippine Tariff—Features of the Measure Now Up—The Doings of U. S. Congress.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In the Senate today a joint resolution was introduced by Mr. Burrows of Michigan, changing the date of inauguration day to the last Thursday in April.

Washington, Dec. 11.—As predicted by Attorney General Knox, President Roosevelt today sent to the Senate the nomination of Francis E. Baker of Indiana, to be United States Judge for the Seventh Judicial district.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Chairman Payne's Philippines bill is agreeable to the Republican majority of the committee on ways and means, and it voted to report it to the house on Friday. Following are the provisions of the bill:

"An act temporarily to provide revenue for the Philippine Islands and for other purposes: Be it enacted, etc., that the provisions of an act entitled 'An act to revise and amend the tariff laws of the Philippines archipelago, enacted by the United States Philippine commission on Sept. 17, 1901, shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Section 2. That on and after the passage of this act there shall be levied, collected and paid upon all articles imported into the United States from the Philippine archipelago the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.

Section 3. That on and after the passage of this act the same tonnage taxes shall be levied, collected and paid upon all vessels coming into the United States from the Philippine archipelago which are required by law to be collected upon vessels coming into the United States from foreign countries, and the first day of January, 1902, provided, however, that the provisions of laws restricting to vessels of the United States the transportation of passengers and merchandise, directly and indirectly, from one port of the United States to another port of the United States shall be applicable to foreign vessels engaging in trade between the Philippines and the United States.

Section 4. That the duties and taxes collected in the Philippines archipelago in pursuance of this act, less the cost of collection, the same and the gross amount of all collections of duties and taxes in the United States upon the same articles imported from the Philippine archipelago and upon vessels coming therefrom shall not be converted into the general fund of the treasury of the United States, but shall be held as a separate fund and paid into the treasury of the Philippine Islands to be used and expended for the government and benefit of said islands.

Section 5. That when duties prescribed by this act are based upon the weight of merchandise deposited in any public or private bonded warehouse said duties shall be levied and collected upon the weight of such merchandise at the time of its entry.

Section 6. That all articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouse in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal revenue tax and intended for exportation from the United States to the Philippine Islands, shall, when so exported, under such regulations as the secretary of the treasury may prescribe, be exempt from internal revenue tax and shall not be charged with duty except the duty levied upon this act upon imports into the Philippine Islands.

CANAL TREATY.

Senator Lodge Analyzes Provisions of the New Document.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In executive session of the senate, Senator Lodge (Mass.) explained the provisions of the new Hay-Pauncefote treaty. He contended that the new canal treaty does away with all the objectionable features of the treaty of the last congress. He showed in specific terms it abrogates the Clayton-Bulwer treaty of 1850. The abrogation of this treaty, he contended, was a most important achievement. Senator Lodge also called attention to the omission in paragraph 1 of article 3 of the words "in time of war, as in time of peace." He said that in the old treaty the paragraph read: "That canal shall be free and open, in time of war as in time of peace, to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations on terms of entire equality." etc. He urged that the omission of this phrase had the effect practically of leaving the United States to do with the canal in time of war according to its own good pleasure.

He also referred to the fact that rule 7 in the treaty of the powers regulating the control of the Suez canal, which had been embodied in the original Hay-Pauncefote treaty, had been omitted in the revised draft. He quoted this rule, which provided that "no fortifications shall be erected commanding the canal or the waters adjacent," etc. This, he said, was a material concession to the United States and was quite sufficient to meet the objections made against that agreement, that the United States would have no power to protect it, property. It practically left the United States free to fortify the canal in case it should be considered desirable to do so.

Senator Culberson asked Mr. Lodge if it was not true that article 3 of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, establishing the general principle of neutralization, is not retained in the new agreement, but Mr. Lodge replied that while there was a declaration to that effect that the general principle of neutralization established by the article is still to be kept alive, the whole tenor of the new treaty was to neutralize and cancel the old agreement.

Nicaragua Canal Bill. Senator Morgan introduced a bill providing for the construction of the Nicaragua canal. The bill provides for an aggregate appropriation of $180,000,000, of which $5,000,000 is made immediately available, and of which such other amounts as are needed from time to time. The control of the canal and of the canal belt is vested in a board of eight citizens of the United States, in addition to the secretary of war, who is to be president.

Senator Martin introduced a bill for a McKinley memorial bridge across the Potomac river at Washington at a cost of $3,000,000. A bill was introduced by Mr. Clay providing for the repeal of the bankruptcy law.

In the house Mr. Sibley introduced a bill authorizing the construction of a railroad across Alaska from Cook's inlet to Bering strait, a distance of 850 miles, by the trans-Alaska Railroad company. The bill grants a right of way 100 feet on each side of the track, and provides for the location of each alternate section of land for a distance of 40 miles on each side of the track. It is specified that this concession is made "to secure the speedy transportation of the mails, troops, munitions of war and public stores." Troops and government property are to be carried free for a period of 10 years, and the postmaster general is to fix the price of carrying the mails.

Ohio members drew the following places on the important standing committees announced by the speaker Tuesday: Tompkins, interstate and foreign commerce; Nevin, judiciary; Gill, banking and currency; Burton, chairman rivers and harbors; Grosvenor, chairman merchant marine and fisheries; Dick, member of military affairs; Shattuck, chairman immigration and naturalization, with Skiles on same committee; Gordon, agriculture; Beidler, foreign affairs; Bromwell, postoffices and postroads.

BONINE CASE

GOES TO THE JURY PROBABLY TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

Nineteen Days Consumed in Examination of Witnesses, Seventy Having Testified—Mystery Still.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The Bonine case will probably go to the jury tomorrow afternoon.

Nineteen days were consumed in the examination of witnesses about 70 having been on the stand.

Expert lawyers say the mystery is as impenetrable as ever.

Tried to Wreck Train.

Lima, O., Dec. 11.—Last night an attempt was made to wreck the west bound passenger train on the Erie railway west of Lima. Ties were placed on the track. The engine was derailed but no casualties resulted.

Veterans Entertained.

A few days ago Capt. L. H. Incho and Comrade H. P. Courtier purchased a barrel of the finest cider ever made in Licking county and determined to put it to good use. To that end they decided to give all their old comrades a chance to sample it. They issued invitations to all the old soldiers to attend a camp fire to be held at Memorial hall Tuesday evening. The time was pleasantly passed in relating reminiscences of the war, and listening to speeches from a number of the old soldiers, including Col. Kibler.

Jeff Rosebrough was present and sang a song that made a great hit, while Dr. Alexander and 'Squire Nott furnished the music for the occasion on the piano and violin. Cider and gingerbread were bountifully served. The ages of fifty of the old soldiers was taken, giving an average of 62 years.

To the Pen.

Van Wert, Dec. 11.—The grand jury has cleared the mystery surrounding the robber at Willshire, by indicting Charles Paine, marshal. He confessed and was with seven accomplices sentenced to the pen today. He gets five years and the others, from 1 to 2 years.

THIEF—Some one broke into the chicken coop of Wm. Murphy, 42 Baltimore street, and stole a game chicken. Reward of $5 is offered.

MERRILY

GOES WAR BETWEEN HANNA AND FORAKER.

COX HAS CINCINNATI CROWD IN HIS POCKET

THE STRUGGLE WILL CONTINUE

Up to Time for Caucuses—Detailed Review of the Republican Muddle To Date.

Columbus, Dec. 11.—The Republican factional fight for the control of the legislature is going merrily on notwithstanding rumors of a compromise and the apparent efforts of one side to make it appear that the other side is about ready to capitulate. There is absolutely no evidence of a wavering on either side and publications stating that one or the other contemplates surrender should be taken with a grain of salt and considered only from the point of view of those who are responsible for them, whether Hannas or Forakerites.

All present signs point to a continuation of the struggle up to the house and senate caucuses. This information is based on reliable statements from the leaders on both sides. It is denied on the one hand by those who ought to know that Senator Foraker will be a party to a compromise and on the other hand that Senator Hanna will ever consent to the election of Harley V. Spellman of Marietta, clerk of the house of representatives.

Since Spellman is the most prominent figure on the Foraker slate and the real bone of contention between the warring factions, it may be stated that the Foraker faction will not eliminate Spellman and that the Hanna faction will not accept him.

Mr. Spellman was in the city last night and today for the first time during the contest, and this afternoon in conversation with the correspondent of the Advocate practically substantiated the foregoing. He says that he is in the fight to win. He claims to have entered the contest on his own responsibility without consulting either Senator Foraker or Charles L. Kurtz, but it is evident that he expects to receive the continued support of both.

The Hanna slate lacks a head. Hanna and George B. Cox having thus far failed to unite upon a candidate for president pro tem of the senate. The remainder of the slate is W. B. Uhl of Cleveland, for clerk of the senate, Judge George T. Thomas of Norwalk for speaker of the house, and Newton N. Miller of Delaware, for clerk of the house. The Hanna men, however, are at a disadvantage in having an uncompleted slate. It is the general belief that they are losing ground by procrastination in this regard.

Cincinnati, Dec. 11.—A meeting of the Hamilton county delegation to the state legislature was called here because of the sensational reports current during the past week of a contest between the friends of Senator Foraker and Senator Hanna over the organization of the legislature, which meets Jan. 6. The party caucuses will be held in Columbus the preceding week, or about three weeks hence, for the nomination of candidates for president pro tem of the senate, speaker and speaker pro tem of the house, and all other officers in the legislature.

The success of Senator Foraker will be elected during the second week of the session, and the Republican caucus for the nomination of senator will not be held until after the legislature convenes and is fully organized. The members of the legislature say they have reports from Washington and Columbus that the friends of Senator Foraker are seeking to name the officers under the legislature and that some of them are working with a view to opposing the re-election of Senator Hanna two years hence.

There will be no opposition to Senator Foraker's re-election next month. Local members of general assembly cite published statements that have recently been made by both of the Ohio senators regarding these contests, and also the statement of Hon. Charles L. Kurtz, who is credited with being the head of a movement at this time for purposes of prestige in opposing Senator Hanna two years hence. Mr. Kurtz headed a fusion of Republicans and Democrats in the legislature four years ago in opposition to Senator Hanna, and it is claimed now that he is preparing under "the Foraker banner" for another fight against Hanna two years hence.

In this connection George B. Cox, the Republican leader in Hamilton county, the home of Senator Foraker, has been appealed to repeatedly by both sides, and he has refused to join either faction. It is conceded, with the Hamilton county delegation solidly back of him, that he holds the balance of power. The three senators and 10 representatives of Hamilton county organized with Senator Eckert as chairman and Representative Cook as secretary, and after discussing the contest between the Foraker and the Hanna men for places in the legislature, invited Mr. Cox to the meeting. He made a statement of the pending troubles and urged the delegation to work for party harmony without regard to personal preferences. Before adjourning the delegation unanimously adopted the following: "Resolved, that the Hamilton county delegation to the Ohio legislature, having thus far been benefited by the advice and counsel of Mr. George B. Cox, hereby agree to be governed by his further advice in the matter of the organization of the senate and house of representatives." It is understood that Mr. Cox is opposed to the slates that are said to have been arranged, and that he will act as a mediator for harmony. Much significance is also given here to the fact that Governor Nash was in the city and in consultation with the Republican leaders till he returned to Columbus.

"Boy" Candidate Won.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 11.—Harry Stover, aged 27, the "boy" candidate for Mayor, won the Republican nomination in the primary yesterday over four old politicians by a plurality of 600. A feature of the contest was the fact that Stover had never before mixed in politics and was scarcely known in the city outside the business district.

ESSENIC ORDER

ORGANIZED BUT INSTITUTION IS POSTPONED.

List of Members and Officers—Bright Prospect for the New Newark Senate.

At a meeting held in the A. O. U. W. hall Tuesday night, Newark senate No. 36, Knights of the Ancient Essenic Order, was formerly organized. William Allen Veach, being in the chair. Officers were elected as follows:

Past Excellent Senator, W. A. Veach.
Excellent Senator, Rev. J. C. Schindler.
Senior Seneschal, H. J. Hoover.
Junior Seneschal, A. V. Davis.
Sacerdos, O. C. Larason.
Secretary, P. C. Maylone.
Treasurer, E. S. Brown.
Senior Vigilante, E. C. Norris.
Junior Vigilante, D. T. Felix.
Trustees, J. L. Worth, E. J. Koos, J. S. Booth.

It was decided to postpone the institution and installation ceremonies for one week to December 17th.

Mr. H. T. Rockey, supreme secretary from Cincinnati, was present and at the lunch gave a short but very interesting talk. Mr. P. E. Bodwell, supreme lecturer, who has been in city for some time organizing the Newark Senate also spoke. Mr. Bodwell who has made many friends during his stay in this city, will remain until after the institution of the new senate next week.

Newark makes the 26th Senate in Ohio. One glance over the roster will show the character of the men who are identified with the new order and these names bespeak a bright future for the purely fraternal organization.

Roster—L. P. Bradley, J. S. Booth, E. S. Brown, E. F. Ball, S. P. Brown, E. F. Collins, J. A. Chilcote, A. R. Carter, Dr. A. V. Davis, Dr. R. W. De Crow, C. P. Elliott, F. J. Felix, D. T. Felix, M. M. Gillett, O. S. Gilbert, C. J. Hall, E. W. Heisey, H. J. Hoover, H. F. Hilderbrand, J. H. Jones, F. L. Jones, J. C. Kreig, F. H. King, E. J. Koos, O. C. Larason, Dr. J. T. Lewis, F. J. Manrath, Otto Meyers, E. W. Murphy, W. C. Miller, M. D. Marshall, G. C. Marshall, P. C. Maylone, F. S. Mosteller, E. C. Norris, J. G. Percy, A. A. Place, Dr. W. C. Rank, George Rogers, C. F. Rhoads, J. R. Garrison, J. C. Schindler, F. E. Slabaugh, H. P. Scott, P. B. Smythe, W. A. Veach, F. L. Woodbridge, J. L. Worth.

FIRE

DESTROYS MAIN BUILDING AT WOOSTER.

QUARTER OF MILLION LOSS TO THE UNIVERSITY.

ABOUT $70,000 IN INSURANCE.

City Fire Department Unable to Cope With the Flames—Blackened Walls Remain.

Wooster, O., Dec. 11.—The main building of the University of Wooster was entirely destroyed by fire between 3 and 5 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at not less than $250,000 with about $70,000 insurance.

Just how the fire originated is not known but as the flames were raging in the west wing where the laboratories were located it is supposed that the fire was caused by chemical combustion of some sort. The main structure was built 30 years ago, was six stories high; the wings completed four years ago were five stories high. The city fire department was not able to cope with the flames because of a lack of pressure and for this reason could do nothing but let the fire burn. The entire walls of the west wing were blown down by the force of the explosion. All that is left of the massive structures are the blackened walls.

War Cloud Grows.

Valparaiso, Chili, Dec. 11.—The war cloud hanging over Chili and Argentina is growing more threatening. Senor Yenez, secretary of foreign affairs, and Argentine Minister Senor Portela, had another fruitless conference over the pending boundary dispute Monday. Advices from Argentina say the war fever there is growing.

ANARCHIST

Arrested for Fatally Shooting New York Newspaper Man—A Monument to Czolgosz.

New York, Dec. 11.—Francis McGinnis Iveagh, a local newspaper writer, was shot and fatally wounded last night by Alexander Horr, an anarchist. Iveagh lived in Horr's house. Horr says Iveagh was in the absence of Horr, tried to kiss Mrs. Horr. For this Iveagh was shot. After the arrest anarchistic papers were found on Horr. In one of these was an article calling for a fund for the erection of a monument to Czolgosz in opposition to the McKinley memorial.

Indiana Tragedy.

Portland, Ind., Dec. 11.—David Corlies shot and fatally wounded his former sweetheart, Myrtle Darlington, last night then ran from the house and turned the weapon on himself, falling dead. The death of the girl is expected at any time.

PHINEAS FOUTZ

Zanesville Soldier Now Thought to Have Been Hanged for Murder in Philippines.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 11.—The latest story that comes from the Philippines is that Phineas Foutz who had been sentenced to death for the murder of his Filipino sweetheart, had paid the penalty for his crime.

C. A. Orwig, the Terrace grocer, received a letter from Phineas Foutz, Monday afternoon. In the letter, which was dated October 30, Foutz stated that he had been recaptured by the United States troops and was in a military prison in Cebu, Philippine islands. He stated that he was to be executed in a few days. He also told Mr. Orwig to tell his friends that he would die "trusting in God."

He said in his letter that he expected to be executed in a few days and that he would be unable to write again. As the letter was written over five weeks ago it can safely be said that Foutz has met his death.

REBUKE FOR GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION.

The radical enforcement of government by injunction in the little Connecticut city of Ansonia, by which labor men were ruthlessly sent to jail for contempt of court, had its effect at the late municipal election in that city. Mr. Charteris, the strike leader who had been imprisoned by the court's order, was triumphantly elected Mayor and has taken office. He has shown great wisdom in his first official action—that of making appointments—all of which are so excellent in character as to surprise and disarm his opponents. The interest which the outside world has in the matter centers in the fact that a whole city in Connecticut arose in wrath and in the most emphatic way open to it denounced the modern system of "government by injunction" by investing the imprisoned labor leader with authority in the city's chief office. "Government by injunction" may be treated in other cities in the same manner.

French scientists are now asserting that it is possible to manufacture gold out of cheap metals. The Frenchmen are a little behind the times. American experimenters have not only asserted that the thing could be done, but have wasted considerable good money in proving that they were wrong. After centuries of fruitless experiments at imitation, it is more than probable that the world's gold supply will continue to be yielded grudgingly but certainly by Mother Earth.

NEW ENGLAND AND THE COLOR LINE.

The menia of color prejudice is not confined to the south. It exists and is offensively displayed to the greatest extent in Republican New England. While Massachusetts men are denouncing southern prejudice against color expressed in the criticisms on the action of President Roosevelt in entertaining Booker T. Washington at lunch. Mr. Washington himself in person was unable to obtain hotel accommodations in Springfield, Mass., where he recently appeared on an invitation to lecture before the board of agriculture of that state. On arriving from the south at Springfield he applied for rooms and meals successively at the three leading hotels in the city and was refused quarters. The New England censors of the south should cast the beams out of their own eyes before asking that others should cast the mote out of their eyes.

Under the heading "Babcock Is Unfortunate" a Milwaukee republican paper prints a dispatch about the lottery for seats in the lower house of congress, and it appears that the Wisconsin anti-trust statesman will have to occupy a seat in the back row on the republican side. He will also take a back seat in the ways and means committee.

Mr. Roosevelt's Opportunity.

(Omaha World-Herald.)
Mr. Roosevelt has a great opportunity before him; indeed, it is the greatest ever offered a president in the history of this country. If he shall take his stand firmly and squarely with the people and against the enemies of the people his future will be secure in the hearts of his countrymen, although his political chances in the republican party may be blasted.

A SUGGESTION FROM THE TAILOR PUTS HIM ON HIS METTLE.

The Little German Cobbler is Full of Enterprise and Tries a New Scheme to Draw Customers, but, as Usual, Things Go Wrong.

(Copyright, 1901, by C. B. Lewis)

DOT little tailor comes in my shop again der odder day and looks all around und says:
"How vhas it you don't haf some work?"
"Because no work comes in," I says.
"Dot vhas no excuse. If you vhas some hustler you can make work come in. Hans, I vvas discouraged about you. You don't know so much about peesness as a rag baby."

COBBLER, DER ORPHAN GIRL VHAS COME

op a sign in der window dot reads:
"All der shoes for orphan children shall be fixed oop free of cost." I vvas pleased und my wife vvas pleased und we go to bed happy. It vvas a great advertisement for my shop if all der orphan children in town come in my der shoes. I don't eat my breakfast before somebody knock on der door, und when I lets him in he vvas a man mit a tear in his eye und six pairs of shoes in his hand.

"Cobblor, I haf come in to take advantage of dot sign," he says. "You vvas a cobbler mit a heart, you vvas, I vvas an orphan for forty-eight years, but dis vvas der first time anybody vvas good to me. You can mend oop my shoes vvas I wail."

"But how can you be some orphan children?" I says.
"Dot vvas dead easy. I haf no father oder mother, und if I vvas a man in years I vvas a child in my heart. Would you like to hear me say 'Mama' oder 'Little Lamb'? Yes, I vvas an innocent und tender hearted ash a child two years old, und your goodness brings tears to my eyes. Hooray oop my shoes!"

I don't do it. I tell dot man he vvas a fraud und a deceiver, und he shakes at me und shakes his fist in my face und says he can break entirely home in my body in two minutes. It takes ten minutes to get him out of der shop, und he don't get around der corner before a young man mit his hat on his ear und a bad cigar in his mouth comes in und says:
"Vheil, old man, I vvas looking for an orphan asylum more ash four years, und I vvas glad to find you at last. You can put life cement patches on der right shoe und 'x on der left, und den you can take in out for some beer."

"How vvas you?" I says.
"I vvas a poor little orphan boy four years old, und der cold, cruel world don't care for me. AH last week I vvas crying because I don't haf nothing to eat. Ah, cobblor, may you neffer know how she vvas to be left a young orphan."

"But you vvas a young man," I says.

"Dot vhas all in your eyes," he replies. "You don't see straight. I may look to be twenty-two, but, ahs, I vvas hardly more ash a baby. Please hustle on dose patches."

He can't fool me dot he vvas some children, und when I says so we haf a row. If I don't haf my shoe knife in my hand he would hit me on der jaw. When he goes out, he says he vvas haf me arrested for false pretenses, und my wife vvas so scared she shakes all outer. Maype I had better take dot sign down, but after two minutes an old woman comes in. She haf a cane in one hand und a pair of shoes in der odder, und she says to me:
"Cobblor, der orphan girl vvas come."

"How you vvas?" I says.
"I vvas some orphan childrens to get my shoes fixed oop free."

"But you vvas an old woman?"
"Ah, cobblor, do not spoke like dot to me! It vvas because I haf on my grandmudder's clothes dot I look so old. You don't know how he vvas to be a little girl und haf no home. Do you haf some beer in dot pail?"
"Of course not."

"Vheil, I like some beer to make me forget I vvas some orphans, but neffer mind. If you fix oop my shoes heaven send I loss you."

I say she had better go out und dry some games on der drugstore, und she gets mad und screams und rells till more ash ore honored peoples comes around. She don't go out till she breaks my lamp und calls me names, und I shut up und take dot sign down so quick ash neffer vvas. She vvas chust down when dot fat policeman comes along und says:
"Dot! So you haf some, more rows, eh?"

"I vvas all oafar," I says.
"Dot! Let me see. So you fix oop shoes for orphan children free of cost? Why don't you tell me about dot?"
"Because you vvas no orphan childrens."

"Oh, I ain't? Maybe you don't know dot I vvas an orphan for forty years, but I soon show you."

"But you vvas no childrens?"
"Don't talk back to me! It makes no difference how old I vvas if I vvas an orphan. Don't you know a man can shed tears und feel sad if his fadder oder mother vvas dead? Cobblor, you like to lead me out on dot deal, but I vvas make it hot for you."

Und he takes me by der neck und leads me out doors und slams me around till I can't stand oop no more, und when he finally goes away he shakes his club behind him und says:
"If you vvas some more you should open another orphan asylum und lead dis orphan on der outside!"

Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Newark, Ohio:

Section 1. That an Ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the making of City Contracts in certain cases," passed July 1, 1895, and found on pages 162, 163, and 164 of the Revised Ordinances of said city, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed December 9, 1901.

H. W. ROSSEL, President.

F. T. MAURATH, Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE.

To provide for the issue and sale of Coupon Bonds of the city of Newark, Ohio, for the purpose of borrowing in anticipation of the General Revenue Fund.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Newark, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is necessary for said city of Newark, Ohio, to make a loan of Forty-Five Hundred and Seventy-Two ($4,572.00) Dollars in anticipation of the general revenue fund, all former loans for such purpose having been fully paid and cancelled, and said loan here provided for not exceeding the amount of taxes and revenue from other sources due and payable into said fund for this fiscal year.

Section 2. That for the purpose of making said loan there shall be issued five coupon bonds of said City of Newark, Ohio, of the denomination of $1,000.00 and $1,000.00 and $1,000.00 and $572.00 respectively, to the aggregate amount of Forty-Five Hundred and Seventy-Two ($4,572.00) Dollars, bearing date December, 1901, and payable at the office of the City Treasurer of said city. Said bonds shall mature and become payable as follows:

No. 1 for $1,000.00 due December 1, 1905.
No. 2 for $1,000.00 due December 1, 1905.
No. 3 for $1,000.00 due December 1, 1905.
No. 4 for $1,000.00 due December 1, 1905.
No. 5 for $572.00 due December 1, 1907.

Said bonds shall draw interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually upon the first day of June and December of each year. Proper interest coupons shall be annexed to and made a part of said bonds. The faith and credit of said City of Newark, Ohio, is hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds.

Section 3. Said bonds shall be numbered consecutively, executed by the Mayor and Clerk, officially, in their own hand writing, and have the corporate seal of said city affixed thereto. Each coupon shall be signed by the City Clerk, and each bond and coupon shall be registered by the City Clerk in a book kept for that purpose. Said bonds shall express on their face the purpose for which they are issued, and shall cite Section 2700 R. S. of Ohio, and this ordinance as authorizing their issue.

Section 4. The finance committee of said Council of said city is hereby authorized and empowered to have said bonds and interest coupons properly prepared and executed, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, and to advertise and sell the same for and in behalf of said city in the manner provided for by law, and place the proceeds to the credit of the proper fund.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

THE INSURANCE

On a Springfield Newspaper Office Expired Just Before a Fire.

Word has been received here of a disastrous fire that occurred in the office of the Springfield Gazette of Springfield, Ohio, of which Mr. J. E. Harwood, formerly of this city, is the owner. The fire was discovered in the press room at noon on Tuesday, and the flames spread with such rapidity that before they could be extinguished a loss of about $3,000 had been entailed. The exact origin of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of gasoline. Just twenty minutes before the fire was discovered $2,500 worth of insurance carried on the building expired. Mr. Harwood, the owner, learned the printing trade on the Advocate, and is well known in Newark.

AT THE ELEVENTH HOUR

By R. T. Nathan.

The fourth act of "Richelleu" had just drawn to a close, and the tense nervous strain was over for the time. From every part of the house rose subdued murmurs. Suddenly the sounds of a falling body came from above.

In the foyer, stretched upon a couch which had been hastily procured, lay a man panting for breath, a human wreck, a common thief caught in the act, his life's blood tracing odd arabesques on the tessellated floor, dying of hemorrhage, the result of a fatal scuffle.

The head usher silently returned with a physician, and a central detective was already at hand, an ambulance alarm having been turned in.

Suddenly the criminal looked up and struggled for breath. A stimulant revived him, and he made an effort to articulate and finally murmured hoarsely:

"Doctor, for heaven's sake keep the breath in my body awhile longer. I have something to clear myself of before I go."

After a brief pause he continued: "I've been a coward, a damnable coward! Oh, merciful heaven, let me purge myself!"

As the physician tenderly raised the dying man's head there was seen through the torn neckband of his shirt the glint of an ornament, a keepsake of some sort.

"I was wedded but two years when—I forged my employer's name—the old, old story, a weak fool easily led. I was sentenced—and served—twenty years. My poor—young—wife—I—never saw again."

His voice fell to a mere husky whisper.

"She died of grief—shame. My baby I afterward learned was raised in an asylum—my only glimpse of heaven—in their pictured faces—a tiny miniature—which I clasped about my babe's neck. It's duplicate I wear."

His hand fastened itself convulsively at his throat:

"But the child! Oh, just heaven, she is a woman now, and I have wrecked her happiness!"

His eyes closed as he fell back, exhausted.

The little group stood silent. Faint echoes of applause floated in. The detective glanced at the physician inquiringly. The latter shook his head, murmuring, "His span is nearly ended."

A short pause ensued, during which the physician employed every means available to infuse a little vitality into the already doomed man. At length his labor was rewarded, and the criminal resumed his narrative:

"I saw her—kissed her! Oh, heaven, how like her mother! I had but just been released—a stranger in my own country, an Islamite—every door turned against me—criminal stamped on every feature—hungry and weary. I stalked into the shrubbery of a villa—witnessed the tender parting of a husband and wife—heard him give explicit directions as to the fastening of doors. I loitered about till dusk. It was easy to effect an entrance noiselessly. I crept to her room, where I surprised valuables were kept. The lamp burned low. By its—its dim light I could see on an easel opposite me a life size crayon, the counterpart of my miniature!"

The physician started, and a dull flush burned on his face. He appeared about to collapse. Not noticing the other's emotion, the dying man continued:

"Like a madman I sprang to her side. She lay in a heavy sleep. At her throat I caught the gleam of gold—the rich framing of a miniature!"

He sank back exhausted. "The physician did not stir."

Like one in a trance, he saw the detective wipe the blood stained lips; heard him mutter at the delay of the ambulance; saw with fascinated gaze the dying man revived, fictitious strength pulsating through that wasted body; heard as in a dream the narrative resumed:

"Wildly I caught her in my arms—my babe, my Pasqualina—straining her to my throbbing breast—one last caress. Then—then I fled. She must never know her father. And then a hoarse cry. A pair of powerful hands throttled me. See, I bear their cruel imprint yet, while a voice hissed: 'Wretch! Hound! You thought me away—safe?' Then turning to the poor stunned creature clinging to the heavy easel, at which she clutched in her bewilderment, he cried, 'You whom I have loved, nay, idolized' With a frenzied cry, I realized all."

"We fought—he for vengeance, I, God forgive my cowardice, for liberty."

"I dared not speak. By a superhuman effort I escaped him—dashed through the low window. From there I leaped over the balcony. Poor coward! Torn and bleeding, I hid once more in the welcome shrubbery, only to hear him revile my innocent babe—pitilessly, mercilessly, as one reviles an abandoned creature. My punishment was hellish!"

The man writhed convulsively and fell back dead.

With an agonized sob, the physician stumbled across the prostrate body, and as the detective stooped to raise him he caught the faint, whispered words:

"Pasqualina—wife—may God forgive me!"

Outside the belated ambulance drew up; behind the doors a thunderous burst of applause, a blare of music. Then the crowd surged out, unaware that a tragedy which rivaled in dramatic intensity the one on the stage had been enacted on the very spot they trod so unconcernedly.—Vogue.

If your nerves are beyond control Dr. Greene's Nervura is the help you need.

Hysteria doesn't kill. It is close to insanity, but seldom reaches it. Hysterical attacks are followed by melancholy. Excitement turns to depression, the tension relaxes. How do you expect to get relief? Does your doctor laugh at you? Does he tell you that hysteria needs an audience, implying that you work up the attack for effect? Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the positive relief and cure for this frightful condition. It has done wonders for many women so afflicted. Mrs. Nettie McHardy, Perry, So. Livermore, Me., says: "For two years I had hysterics and was fearfully nervous. I was in a terrible condition. My limbs were cold all the time. I could not sleep nights and had no appetite. My nerves were in a frightful state, and I was very weak. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me no good. "One day a friend wished me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I did so, and after taking this wonderful medicine for a short time I was in perfect health. I think Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is splendid, and would advise everybody to try it."

Get help where your trouble is understood. Dr. Greene is a specialist in nervous troubles. His Nervura is their sovereign cure. Try to believe this, for it will save you from misery. Write to the doctor or call for free counsel at 101 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Write to-day. Don't wait.

TYRER-BACKENSTOS

Marriage of Two Well Known Newark People—A Very Pretty Home Wedding.

Mr. Charles Tyrer and Miss May Backenstos, two highly respected young people of this city, were married on Tuesday evening. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, 19 Holiday street, and was performed by the Rev. H. Newton Miller, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of Christ, in the presence of a number of the intimate friends of the contracting parties at 7 o'clock. After the ceremony had been concluded and congratulations extended to the happy couple, all sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Tyrer have the congratulations of all their friends. They will make their home for the present with the parents of the bride.

DR. GRANSTAFF

RECEIVES A CALL FROM CHURCH AT MARION, OHIO.

Presbyterian Church There Decided on First Ballot to Call Newark Pastor.

The members of the Presbyterian church and congregation of Marion, Ohio, elected Rev. Frank Granstaff, D. D. of Newark, pastor, Monday night on the first ballot.

The meeting was called to order after a brief service which was prefaced by the reading of the 23d Psalm by Dr. Hawn, who acted as moderator of the meeting.

The extreme inclemency of the weather had little effect upon the church membership as a large percentage of the church attendants and members was present. The object of the meeting was stated by Moderator Hawn. Dr. Granstaff received a majority of all the votes cast, a motion made by Mr. E. K. Uhler to make Dr. Granstaff's election unanimous prevailed and thus ended the proceedings attending the election of a pastor.

A motion also prevailed empowering the session and trustees of the church to sign the call extended to the newly elected pastor.—Marion Mirror.

Dr. Granstaff was seen this morning by a reporter, and stated that he had received no official notification of the call that had been extended from the Marion church. The official call will probably reach Newark today.

Dr. Granstaff has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in this city for over eight years, and the relations between him and the congregation have been most harmonious. Dr. Granstaff's many Newark friends would be sorry to have him leave this city.

As Mr. Granstaff has not yet received official notice of the call from Marion, he does not at the present time care to discuss his probable action.

RAILROADS.

B. &amp; O. at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—While local officers of the Baltimore and Ohio profess ignorance of the many reports regarding a change in the passenger terminals of that line it is the prevailing opinion that this road's headquarters will be removed from the Grand Central station Jan. 1. There are rumors that it will be changed to the Union station on the west side or that it may go to the Park row station of the Illinois Central.

No contract for the tenancy of the Baltimore and Ohio road is held by the Terminal Transfer company, which owns the Grand Central station. The contract which expires between the two companies expires with the end of the receivership of the Baltimore and Ohio several years ago and was not renewed. The Pennsylvania owns the Baltimore and Ohio, and if a move is made it will probably be to the Union station. The Harriman people, on the other hand, own the Alton and the Grand Central station.

During the coming year the Grand Central station will have all the roads it can accommodate. For the next year the depot will be used by the Rock Island, Lake Shore and Nickel Plate and by the Great Western, one of the present tenants.

DEMOCRATS

COMPLETELY ROUTED REPUBLICANS IN BOSTON.

General Collins Elected Mayor Over Hart by Big Majority Other Contests.

Boston, Dec. 11.—The Democrats completely overwhelmed the Republicans in the city election, General Patrick A. Collins being elected over Mayor Thomas N. Hart by the largest plurality in a quarter of a century. The Democrats likewise obtained control of both branches of the city government. As usual, the city voted strongly in favor of license. The result of the canvass was fully as much a surprise to the Democrats as to their opponents. The most sanguine Democratic prophet claimed only 7,000, yet this plurality was nearly tripled.

In Worcester Mayor O'Connell, a Democrat, was defeated. In Woburn Mayor Feeney defeated the Woburn mayor and the city changed from no license to license. In Chelsea, where the Republicans swept the city, there was a change from no license to license for the first time in 11 years. In Newburyport, where license has had a firm hold for 20 years, the city voted no by over 300 majority. One of the stubborn contests was in Salem, where Mayor Huey's administration was indorsed by the vote, although it had been fiercely criticised. There was likewise a warm contest in Cambridge. The Democrats succeeded there in electing John H. McNamee over Mayor Dickinson by 125.

FIGHT

In the Philippines—Thousands Are Leaving Batangas Province for Places of Safety.

Manila, Dec. 11.—Thousands of people are leaving Batangas province for places of safety. General James M. Bell reports an important engagement between a force of Filipinos at Labo province of Camarines, and a detachment of the Twentieth infantry. Three Americans were killed. The loss of the natives is not known, but it is believed to have been heavy. General Bell anticipates speedy extermination of the native forces. A large force of Filipinos recently attacked the town of Lipa, province of Batangas, killing one soldier and several Americanists. Troop H, First cavalry, killed 10 of the natives before the remainder escaped. A Filipino force consisting of 200 riflemen and 400 bolomen recently attacked Hagpartian, province of North Hocos. Company M, Eighth infantry, acting on the defensive, drove off the natives, killing 11 of them with no loss to the Americans.

Boston Banquet.

Boston, Dec. 11.—The Boston Merchants' association met at the Vendome in celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary and was entertained by four men of national reputation, who made spirited addresses, chiefly along political lines. Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith spoke in favor of "Reciprocity," Hon. Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, discussed "Commercial Relations," Senator M. A. Hanna portrayed the virtues of "The Ship Subsidy Bill," and Hon. Henry Watterson of Kentucky spoke on "Kentucky and Massachusetts." These were the principal guests.

A Brave Schoolgirl.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—While clouds of smoke filled the hallways from a fierce fire which raged in the basement of the Lincoln school, Ethel Barker, 12, sat at a piano in the main corridor up stairs and played a lively two-step for the 300 children to keep time by while marching out of the burning building. Miss Barker did not cease playing until the last child had left the building. When the girl volunteered to play the march—she was the only pupil who knew the building was on fire, for she had heard the whispered announcement that preceded the ringing of the fire gong.

National League Meeting.

New York, Dec. 11.—Directors Robinson, Brush, Freedman and Soden of the National league went into session at the Fifth Avenue hotel, and after a two hours' session the regular meeting of the league was called. It was reported that John T. Brush had won over two more of the magnates to his way of thinking as to the presidential question, and that a deadlock is the result. According to this information Brush now has Freedman, Soden and Robinson back of him, while Dreyfus, Rogers, Hart and Abell are seeking the election of A. G. Spalding as president of the league.

IF SANDY CLAWS WAS PA.

I've often thought what fun 't would be If Sandy Claws was pa. He surely would be good to me If Sandy Claws was pa. He'd let me see the million toys He makes for little girls and boys, An' every single winter's day I'd ketch on to the reindeer sleigh, An' he'd be good an' wouldn't mind, But jes' pretend that he was blind An' wouldn't never whip behind If Sandy Claws was pa.

The reindeer'd take us 'way up high If Sandy Claws was pa. They'd trot right through the air an' sky If Sandy Claws was pa. An' pa would tell me how the deer Could do a thing so awful queer An' why they stay up in the air Without balloons to keep 'em there; He'd tell me how they fly all night Up past the stars so big an' bright Without a single wing in sight If Sandy Claws was pa.

The pole explorers would be blue If Sandy Claws was pa. We'd find the pole before they do If Sandy Claws was pa. For we'd go there jes' like a streak; It wouldn't take us half a week To make the trip in half a day. Her half a night while on the way. It's great ole time then reindeer make When their slim legs glide wide awake; Not half a hour it wouldn't take If Sandy Claws was pa.

Each night there'd be a Chris's tree If Sandy Claws was pa. An' one each day, besides, for me If Sandy Claws was pa. He'd tell me how he climbs right down The red hot chimbleys in the town An' how he ever, ever learnt To never get his whiskers burnt. But what's the use of thinkin' so? These dreams is nice, but they don't go, For pa ain't Sandy Claws, you know, An' Sandy Claws ain't pa. —Larrie Hooker Eaton in Century.

Didn't Reach the Finish.

He was a man on crutches and had evidently had a hard time of it, and when asked if he was a victim of rheumatism he answered:

"No, but of patriotism."

"How is that?"

"Why, at the time of the assassination I was one of a crowd around the bulletin boards, and I started in to say that if our president had been shot it served as a lesson to warn us against admitting agitators to this country."

"And you didn't say it?"

"No. I had only got as far as 'Gentlemen, if our president has been shot it serves—' when the crowd piled on to me and sent me to the hospital for three months."

Securing Himself.

"That man says he wants all the advice he can get on the way he is to conduct the office to which he has just been elected."

"That is very shrewd of him. In that way he is pretty sure to get just the kind of advice he desires. Then he can lay the responsibility on some one else for doing precisely as he pleases."

Minister Kills His Little Family and Then Himself.

HAD BROODED OVER A SON'S DEATH.

Jealous Youth Shoots His Sweetheart and Takes His Own Life—Deed of a Lovesick Maiden—Principals Slain in a Sensational Duel—Calendar of Crime.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 11.—The Rev. John Kinnunen, minister of the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran church at Copper Falls, Keweenaw county, killed his wife and two children and committed suicide. Kinnunen had brooded over the death of a son until he became violently insane. He first cut his wife's throat with a butcher knife and then killed his two younger sons with it. The eldest boy, aged 13, escaped. After killing his wife and two sons Kinnunen fired the house and cut his own throat. The flames were easily extinguished.

Both Killed in a Duel. Zolfo, Fla., Dec. 11.—G. L. Powell and J. S. Overstreet, both prominent naval stores manufacturers, shot and killed each other in a face-to-face duel. Overstreet went to Powell's turpentine still, nine miles west of here, to see about some hands. The two men had some words and both drew their revolvers and commenced firing. Both men emptied their revolvers without doing any damage. Powell then went into the house and came out with a rifle. Both fired together and each man fell. Overstreet was shot in the forehead and Powell just below the heart. Overstreet was killed instantly and Powell lived only an hour. Powell was one of the largest operators and owners of turpentine lands in Florida.

Negroes Sold as Slaves. New Decatur, Ala., Dec. 11.—Ben Milam, colored, an ex-slave of Lawrence county, is under arrest charged with an unusual crime. It is alleged that Milam has for some time been engaged in kidnapping negroes and selling them as slaves to the white manager of a Tennessee river island plantation some miles below Decatur. It is said Milam would induce negroes to accompany him to the island with the promise of securing positions for them on the plantation at good wages, and that when he reached there he would sell them.

Rejected Lover's Deed. Portland, Ind., Dec. 11.—David Carle, the rejected lover of Mabel Darlington, adopted daughter of John Spahr, a wealthy farmer residing near Blaine, this county, fired two bullets from a revolver into the girl and then shot himself through the head. The girl is still alive, but as one of the balls penetrated the chest below the left nipple and the other passed clear through her side, her recovery is doubtful. He attempted suicide by hanging a few weeks ago.

Found Dead. Boston, Dec. 11.—Maurice Fitzgerald and his brother, Edward Fitzgerald, were found dead in bed in a room of fifth. A diligent search by the police fails to show whether it was a case of murder and suicide or suicide by each. Both bodies were fully attired. Maurice was a priest 15 years ago in Boston and was excommunicated by Archbishop Williams, having been condemned for violation of his priestly vows.

Unrequited Love. Helena, Mon., Dec. 11.—Because her sweetheart's love had grown cold Fannie Huntley, 18, daughter of Joseph Huntley, a prosperous citizen of Carbon county, took a dose of strychnine that resulted in almost instant death. She was infatuated with Clarence Chance, son of the postmaster at Chance, and when he drove by and looked the other way she ran up stairs and took the poison.

Bloody Saloon Row. Mangum, O. T., Dec. 11.—Bush Ardry was killed, Garrett Thurman was shot in the back and may die, and L. S. McDonald was shot in the left shoulder in a saloon row in the village of Port, Washita county. The men had taunted the bartender, Sam Pepper, one of them jumping upon the bar, when Pepper opened fire.

"P. O."

IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ELKS WINDOW SIGN

Mistaken for "Post Office"—Many Letters are Dropped There by Mistake.

A number of people seem to be in the habit of making a queer mistake in confounding the entrance to the Elks headquarters which are above the Post office, with the Post office itself. As every one knows, you enter a square lobby from the pavement after which the door on the right of the lobby admits you to the Post office, while the door just ahead leads up the stairway to the Elks' headquarters. This latter door has painted on it the mystic letters, "B. P. O. E." for the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, and underneath an opening for depositing the Elks mail. It has been found that very frequently people who want to mail letters stick them through the opening in the Elks stairway, instead of into the Post office box as intended. "Brownie" says that he supposes these people think that the "P. O." in the middle of the "B. P. O. E." stands for Post office.

Carnegie's Proposition. Washington, Dec. 11.—The proposed gift of $10,000,000 by Mr. Carnegie for educational purposes was discussed at the meeting of the cabinet. It was stated after the meeting that the president had received a communication from Mr. Carnegie on the subject of creating a fund for the extension of higher education. It is said his proposition does not involve the establishment of university buildings in Washington, but rather the placing of a fund in the hands of government trustees from which the expenses of deserving students may be paid in the line of original investigation at home or abroad.

Town Burned. Wayne, W. Va., Dec. 11.—This town, the county seat of Wayne county, was almost wiped out by a fire, which raged for five hours. The loss is about $43,000, with but little insurance. The following buildings are among those burned: Lon Davis, dry goods; William Booten, dry goods and groceries; Peter Fischback, saddlery and harness; Chapman Fry, dry goods; Addison Napier, livery stable; L. L. Osborne's dwelling and dry goods store and Wesley Ellis' wagon shop. The fire originated in a stable. The town had no fire department and the people were helpless.

Major John Biddle. The new engineer commissioner of the District of Columbia, Major John Biddle, corps of engineers, United States army, has been inducted into office, relieving Captain Lansing L. Beach, who had served as commissioner from June 1, 1898, to the present time.

Major John Biddle is rightfully regarded as one of the ablest officers of the engineer corps. Since the outbreak of hostilities with Spain in 1898 he had been constantly in the field engaged in important work until relieved from duty in the Philippines a few months ago. Major Biddle accomplished much municipal engineering work in Cuba and is thoroughly familiar with that subject.

Major Biddle was born in Detroit, Mich., and went from there to the University of Michigan, later leaving that institution to enter the Military academy, where he graduated with high honors in the class of 1881. Being one of the star graduates, he was assigned to the corps of engineers.

A Hungarian Patriot. Alexander Strausz of Toledo, O., is one of the few remaining Hungarian patriots who found a home in this country after the war of liberation in 1846. At that time Strausz was a young gentleman of Budapest to whom the fiery eloquence and the liberal doctrines of Kossuth appealed with compelling force. He was one of the pioneers of the liberation movement, serving under General Gorgey and surrendering with him after the unequal struggle at Vilagos. He came to this country in 1852 with letters to Edward Everett. He knew Daniel Webster intimately.

Buttermilk For Brood Sows. Buttermilk should not be given in large quantities to a sow that is nursing pigs, says a writer in American Swineherd. It may so affect her milk by causing it to curdle prematurely in the stomachs of the young pigs as to cause the death of the latter. If fed at all, the quantity should not exceed forty pounds to a barrel of swill. If the buttermilk has been obtained from creamery and has become an acid before it can be fed, better avoid feeding it. Buttermilk as obtained from creamery, even though fed to sows or pigs, when fed single and alone will, as a rule, cause the evil results above alluded to, and yet there is no food that may be fed to such great advantage in connection with other food as the by-product of the dairy.

Bacon For Home Use. When cutting up the pig, cut two wide strips from the belly part. As these strips contain the most lean, they are better for bacon, says Prairie Farmer. The back or thicker parts cut into narrow strips and salt down for side pork. Pack the hams and shoulders into a barrel with the bacon on top, and for these make a brine one-half as strong as that used for the side pork, making it quite sweet with good molasses or brown sugar. A small amount of saltpeter—about an ounce to a hundred pounds of meat—dissolved and mixed with the brine is helpful. In about eight days remove the bacon pieces from the brine and smoke, letting the hams and shoulders remain in the brine six weeks before smoking.

DAMAGE SUIT

FILED BY MRS. ELLEN PATTERSON AGAINST BUCKEYE LAKE

Suit Grows Out of the Death of Her Husband in October—Ten Thousand Asked.

Ellen Patterson, as administrator of the estate of James L. Patterson, deceased, has, by her attorney, R. L. Tanneyhill, commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction company, the National Railway Construction company and the Great Northern Construction company for $10,000 damages for the death of her husband, which occurred on October 25, 1901.

The petition sets forth the allegation that Patterson was a brakeman on a train used in the construction of the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Electric railway, which consisted of several gravel cars, and that while engaged in his duties as such brakeman, he was crushed between the cars and killed by the neglect and default of the defendants and will out fault on his part.

A WILL CASE. The case of Martha J. Baird vs. J. V. Hillard executor of the last will and testament of Isaac Stump, deceased, was on trial today before "Squire Crilly."

The plaintiff sues for $58 for nursing the deceased, who cut her out of his will, as it is alleged.

A. A. Stasel appeared for the defendant and E. M. P. Brister for the plaintiff.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Orville A. Pierson and Emma R. Condit.

NEXT WEEK—The Presbyterians are arranging for the "Retreat" to be held here on the 17th and 18th inst. to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Shaw of New York. Other prominent ministers are to take part in the program.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

Mixing Soils. We have learned that an admixture of the blood of our better breeds of stock upon the coarser breeds results in better stock if not as good as the pure bred, says American Cultivator. We have begun lately to learn the value of cross pollination upon our fruits and plants. But one thing has been longer known than either of these, among the practical farmers, and yet has been less practiced—the mixing of soils—sand, clay and muck—to produce a soil which will be really better than either alone. A few cart their black loam from the swamps to spread upon sandy soils more because they have dug it out in making ditches and need to get it out of the way than to improve the upland, and, though they see the benefit, they seldom do it again until more ditches are made and seldom except in cranberry growing carry sand to the black muck land; yet it would pay to do both when it can be done in the winter without neglect of other farm work.

TODAY'S MARKET. Chicago, Dec. 11.—Today's market closed: May wheat 84 1/2; corn 68 1/2; oats 45 1/2; pork $16.97.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—A selling panic seized holders of May wheat and corn on the board of trade today, under the persistent hammering the price tumbled rapidly from 82 1/2 to 80 1/2. In-house lines of wheat and corn were sold on decline. Longs made a frenzied effort to get rid of their holdings, fearing that the price would slide below 80. During the session corn fell from 67 1/2 to 66 1/2.

Rheumatic Warped Limbs.

To suffer the most excruciating pains, to lose the use of limbs, and to have the joints swollen and disfigured is the lot of the victim of rheumatism.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of rheumatism. If the kidneys are active, they remove the uric acid. That is their special work. If, on the other hand, the kidneys are deranged, there is sure to be uric acid in the blood and rheumatic pain through the body.

No amount of liniment will ever cure rheumatism. It sometimes relieves, but cure can only be brought about by setting the kidneys right.

The most effective kidney remedy known to man is Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They cure rheumatism permanently by making the kidneys active in their work of removing the uric acid from the blood.

Mr. William J. Coad, No. 65 Brunson Street, Oswego, N. Y., writes: "I am very glad to praise Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and tell what they have done for me. I suffered for many years with severe constipation, rheumatism and kidney trouble, and could get no relief until I tried Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In them I found immediate relief, and can honestly recommend them to other sufferers."

DIED IN FRAZEYSBURG.

Mrs. Harley Tomlinson, formerly Miss Clara Lecky, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lecky on December 4, aged 33 years, 3 months and 19 days. The deceased leaves to mourn her untimely death a brother, mother, husband, and two sisters, Miss Bernice Lecky of Frazeysburg, and Mrs. Clarence Baggett of Newark, and three brothers, Mr. Wm. Lecky of Youngstown, DeWitt and Tompison Lecky of Frazeysburg.

She was a member of the M. E. church of that place, and the shock of her death will be greatly deplored by all who knew her. She was a kind, faithful, and loving mother and wife and will be greatly missed in our dear home.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Heaven now retains our treasure,
Earth the barren casket keeps

OBITUARY.

Died, on Dec. 2, 1901, at the residence of his father, 110 Vale street, Mr. Gideon Dush, after a lingering illness of that dread disease, consumption, aged 28 years. The deceased had been in failing health for about two years. "Gid," as he was familiarly called was a man of kind and friendly disposition, and was highly esteemed by everybody who knew him. The writer has often enjoyed his society, and has more than once been under obligations to him for favors. He leaves a wife, father and mother, four sisters and two brothers, besides a host of friends to mourn his death.

HER FATHER'S SUBSTITUTE

"Has Ketchum come down yet?" "No; worse again today. Can't one of the subs take his place for a few days?"

"Huh! What can a sub do against the trained force of The Lancet?" returned Mr. Sharp sharply.

Just then the outer door opened and also opened Mr. Sharp's eyes. A young woman came in, neatly dressed in gray flannel suit, natty trimmed with fur.

"Mr. Sharp, I believe," she said after her brown eyes had taken an inventory of the force present. "My name is Mary Ketchum, sir, and, as father is positively unable to be out, I came to see if you would allow me to do his work."

"Do his work?" repeated Mr. Sharp mechanically.

"Yes, sir. I believe I can, and father worries about it so much that it retards his recovery. Please let me try."

Mr. Sharp's grin face relaxed. "If you really think you can do it, Miss Ketchum," he replied, with thawing resolution.

"I am sure I can," she replied. A few moments later Miss Mary departed, a parcel of bills in her hand and with a list of possible patrons.

"There's no fool like an old fool," he grumbled to himself as he took his place at his own desk again. "She'll be in crying presently, with not a red or an ad. to show for my soft heartedness."

The melting vision of the trim young lady removed, he was himself again—sharp Mr. Sharp.

No young lady in tears appeared, though Mr. Sharp furtively watched the door until lunchtime.

"Gone home to cry," he said then as he kicked the office cat on the way out since he could not conveniently kick himself.

He was in the pressroom giving some pointed advice when she did appear.

"Lady to see you, sir," said the office boy at a safe distance, for Mr. Sharp was not above emphasizing his remarks on days when things went awry with him, as they did today.

"Well, sir," said Miss Mary, diving into her bag with businesslike promptness as he dropped into his office chair. "We'll dispose of bills paid and receipts first."

She took a goodly roll of money from her bag before the astonished proprietor's eyes and began checking off the names and amounts from her list of debtors.

"Messrs. Good & Fuller were not prepared to settle today, but gave me a promise for tomorrow. Dr. Grumbler claims an error in his bill; the rest are all right. I think. Count the money if you will."

He did so, his steely gray eyes filled with wonder and satisfaction. There were some names on that list that he had long classed as doubtful debtors, but Miss Mary's charms had been more potent than their fear of Mr. Sharp's lawyer.

"It's all right, Miss—Miss Ketchum," Mr. Sharp smiled broadly as he spoke the name. She had caught 'em sure enough. This smile widened still over his list of ads. engaged.

"What, Gruff & Grimm? How in blazes did you manage to get them? Your father has been after them for a year past."

"Has he?" The big brown eyes opened in innocent wonder. "Why, I'm sure they were very civil. Mr. Blunt went in just as I passed out."

"Did he? That's rich!" Mr. Sharp slapped his knee and actually laughed aloud. Mr. Blunt was advertising solicitor for The Lancet, and it tickled him to imagine his chugrin at being checkmated, for Gruff & Grimm were not believers in advertising and would patronize but one of the two offices, he well knew.

He smiled again as he neared the end of the list. "If here isn't Growler! How on earth did you manage him?"

Mr. Sharp was growing confidentially unbusinesslike in his surprised delight. "Oh, I had to gossip with him. It really seemed a waste of time in getting one customer, but perhaps it will pay."

"I should say it would—a half column ad. for six months. I don't mind saying, Miss Ketchum, that you've done well, very well. Have a—his hand going mechanically toward his cigar case. "Oh, excuse me, miss. I forgot that ladies don't smoke. Here, you, Billy!"

He darted out and made some communication to the office boy, who at once disappeared, a clatter and rush of heels on the stairway following the disappearance.

"Tell your father not to worry himself about the office work," he said blantly as he came back to his chair—"that is, if you are willing to take his place. He'd better be careful about striking out too soon. A rest will do him good. Haste makes waste sometimes, especially in the matter of health."

Miss Mary was tying a veil over her blooming cheeks when the office boy came back, panting with his haste.

"Since you don't smoke, permit me to offer you a little treat instead, Miss Ketchum," Mr. Sharp said as he gallantly opened the door and placed in her hand a basket of choice assorted fruit.

Miss Mary Ketchum became a familiar figure in The Clips office, and when at length Tom Ketchum came back to his work Mr. Sharp said to him: "That girl of yours, Ketchum, is a brick. I believe she'd make an A1 reporter. At least I'm going to try her, if she's willing."

Where It Differs.

"No," he said, "marriage is not a lottery—at least not a properly conducted lottery. You can take as many chances as you want in a lottery, while one is usually the limit in marriage."

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia, and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, although they are sold by all druggists under protection of trademark, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydragric and nux.

They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

Pan-American Delegate Dead.

City of Mexico, Dec. 11.—Jose Hyginio Duarte Pereira, delegate of Brazil to the pan-American conference, died from pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble.

Plea of Poies.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—An aged aristocrat, Prince Ferdinand Radziwill, in whose veins flows the blood of the ancient kings of Poland, spoke of the wrongs of his people in the reichstag. The matter of the recent incidents at Wreschen (known as the "school scandals") was brought up by the prince in the form of an interpellation. Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, refused to discuss the incidents referred to. He declared that they pertained to the Prussian diet, and that, therefore, he must refuse to discuss them in the reichstag.

Nellie Cropsey Dead.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 11.—The family of Nellie Cropsey, who heretofore have clung to the belief that she was alive, but do not state the basis for this change in their opinion. A member of the committee of five in charge of the search for the missing girl said: "We believe we will produce the body of Nell Cropsey within 12 hours."

Miss Carrie Cropsey, a cousin of the missing girl, said: "The family are at a loss for any explanation of the mystery. We now believe Nell is dead."

MARINE MISHAPS

Nearly a Dozen Seamen Drowned in a Brace of Accidents—Eleven People Are Killed.

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 11.—Details are just at hand of the accident which resulted in the death of seven members of the crew of the British bark Pinmore, bound from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, to Portland. The Pinmore went into the surf at the mouth of Raft river, north of Gray's harbor. The crew of 30 abandoned the ship, and took to the boats, one of which was capsized shortly after leaving the vessel and six men drowned. The other boat reached shore safely after being out for 36 hours. One man died from exposure.

Four Seamen Perished.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 11.—Four seamen, thought to belong to the Norwegian steamer Ella, lost their lives in an attempt to reach shore for assistance when the Ella, which was bound from Burnt Bay, N. F., to this city, lost her propeller of Scatterie island. A high sea was running and the men soon became exhausted, and a sea filled the boat in which they were trying to reach land. One by one they sank until but one remained. He reached the shore of Mainadieu, where he told the story. Being badly used up he is unable to tell the names of the men who lost their lives, except that one was an officer. Tugs have gone in search of the Ella.

Commission Firm Squeezed.

Omaha, Dec. 11.—The commission firm of H. R. Penny & Company, with offices in the Board of Trade building, closed their doors. Their branch offices at Sioux City, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fremont, Columbus and Syracuse, Neb., also closed. H. R. Penny said that the firm had suffered losses of over $40,000 during the recent bull movement in wheat, but that his customers would be paid in full.

Troops For South Africa.

London, Dec. 11.—Additional drafts for the militia, yeomanry and the regulars are already being prepared for transportation to South Africa. The British government has decided to call out all reservists who have not completed their 12 years of service, for service in South Africa. The federal government of Australia is also considering the sending of further contingents to South Africa.

Bluff Worked.

Vienna, Dec. 11.—As a result of the threat made by Dr. Van Koeber, the Austrian premier, in the reichsrath on Dec. 9, that he would suspend the constitution if the house persisted in its obstruction, that body disposed of all the remaining stages of the provisional budget.

Tramps Crushed.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 11.—A freight train was wrecked on the Southern Pacific railway 125 miles west of this place and two tramps are reported to have been buried under the debris and killed. Fifteen cars went into ditch.

Pan-American Delegate Dead.

City of Mexico, Dec. 11.—Jose Hyginio Duarte Pereira, delegate of Brazil to the pan-American conference, died from pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble.

Plea of Poies.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—An aged aristocrat, Prince Ferdinand Radziwill, in whose veins flows the blood of the ancient kings of Poland, spoke of the wrongs of his people in the reichstag. The matter of the recent incidents at Wreschen (known as the "school scandals") was brought up by the prince in the form of an interpellation. Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, refused to discuss the incidents referred to. He declared that they pertained to the Prussian diet, and that, therefore, he must refuse to discuss them in the reichstag.

Nellie Cropsey Dead.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 11.—The family of Nellie Cropsey, who heretofore have clung to the belief that she was alive, but do not state the basis for this change in their opinion. A member of the committee of five in charge of the search for the missing girl said: "We believe we will produce the body of Nell Cropsey within 12 hours."

Miss Carrie Cropsey, a cousin of the missing girl, said: "The family are at a loss for any explanation of the mystery. We now believe Nell is dead."

HARRY SCOTT, THE HOME BUILDING ASS'N CO.

Several years ago I purchased the Stoddard Lectures of Mr. L. H. Bulkley. I have considered it the finest thing of the kind I have ever seen. The literary quality of the work is all that could be desired, and the books as to printing and illustrations are superb. It is certainly a set of books which every one who loves beautiful books, as well as instructive ones, should own.

HARRY SCOTT.

Bank robbers and safe blowers are often the legitimate fruit of dime novels and degraded literature. How much of the flood of crime that seems lately to have been let loose can be traced to bad literature we may not know, but certainly it is that if a boy can be induced to read the bright fresh and good, his whole life is sure to be moulded by its influence.

Among home books that cannot help being read and which form real character Stoddard's Lectures stand at the head. Ask those who own them and know about them and our words will be verified. Then plan for Stoddard now.

King Among Books.

A new and valuable edition of Webster's International Dictionary containing 25,000 additional words, phrases and definitions, containing 2344 pages and 500 illustrations in rich binding, has just been issued by G. and C. Merriam Company, publishers at Springfield, Mass.

This is the best practical working dictionary and is always reliable as well as easy to consult.

Dr. Gilman, president of Johns Hopkins university, says: "Webster was never so good. It grows better at each revision."

Dr. Charles W. Elliot, president of Harvard, says: "Wonderfully compact storehouse of accurate information." Be sure to see the new revised edition and do not allow an old, obsolete to be sold for the edition. The new dictionary is a king among books.

ST. JOE ROAD.

The Name Creek Has Been Abandoned—Little Place May Soon Have Telephone Service.

St. Joe Road, Dec. 10—The above name will perhaps seem new to many but it is what used to be "Cresk."

Since the coming of the free rural mail delivery and the doing away with the Cresk Postoffice, this place has seemed to have had no name, although it has been known by this two years. Friday some public benefactors came to the rescue and posted a neat sign-board at the corner where Cresk P. O. was with the name "St. Joe Road", printed thereon in large letters.

Another similar board was placed at the covered bridge over the Racoon Creek west of Alexandria and hence the road between these points will be known as St. Joe Road.
